

SECRECY ORDER RECOMMENDATION BY DEFENSE AGENCY

Application Serial No.: 10/7001421

Defense Agency: ARMY

Filing Date:

Date Referred: 2-11-04

Date Created: 2/21/04

I hereby acknowledge as indicated by my signature on this form that I have inspected this application in administration of 35 USC 181 on behalf of the Agency/Command specified below. I promise not to divulge any information from this application for any purpose other than administration of 35 USC 181.

Recommendation

(e.g. 'Secrecy Not Recommended (SNR)')

Reviewer(s) Signature/Date/Command

	Atsu P. Khan SNR MAR 24 2004 3-24-04 U.S. Army CONCERN NASA
--	---

BEST AVAILABLE COPY

Instructions to Reviewers:

All individuals reviewing this application are required under 35 USC 181 to sign and date this form regardless of whether they are making a secrecy order recommendation.

The attached copy of the application, any copies made therefrom and this form must be returned to the PTO once a recommendation not to impose secrecy has been made or a secrecy order has been rescinded.

Time for Completion of Review:

Pursuant to 35 U.S.C. 184, the subject matter of this application may be filed in a foreign country for the purpose of filing a patent application without a license any time after the expiration of 6 months from filing date unless the application becomes the subject of a secrecy order.

35 USC 184. (a) If the Secretary of the Patent and Trademark Office determines that the subject matter of an application for a patent is not patentable, the Secretary shall, in the interest of the public, cause the application to be published in the Official Gazette of the United States Patent and Trademark Office. (b) If the Secretary of the Patent and Trademark Office determines that the subject matter of an application for a patent is patentable, the Secretary shall, in the interest of the public, cause the application to be published in the Official Gazette of the United States Patent and Trademark Office. (c) If the Secretary of the Patent and Trademark Office determines that the subject matter of an application for a patent is not patentable, the Secretary shall, in the interest of the public, cause the application to be published in the Official Gazette of the United States Patent and Trademark Office. (d) If the Secretary of the Patent and Trademark Office determines that the subject matter of an application for a patent is patentable, the Secretary shall, in the interest of the public, cause the application to be published in the Official Gazette of the United States Patent and Trademark Office. (e) If the Secretary of the Patent and Trademark Office determines that the subject matter of an application for a patent is not patentable, the Secretary shall, in the interest of the public, cause the application to be published in the Official Gazette of the United States Patent and Trademark Office. (f) If the Secretary of the Patent and Trademark Office determines that the subject matter of an application for a patent is patentable, the Secretary shall, in the interest of the public, cause the application to be published in the Official Gazette of the United States Patent and Trademark Office. (g) If the Secretary of the Patent and Trademark Office determines that the subject matter of an application for a patent is not patentable, the Secretary shall, in the interest of the public, cause the application to be published in the Official Gazette of the United States Patent and Trademark Office. (h) If the Secretary of the Patent and Trademark Office determines that the subject matter of an application for a patent is patentable, the Secretary shall, in the interest of the public, cause the application to be published in the Official Gazette of the United States Patent and Trademark Office. (i) If the Secretary of the Patent and Trademark Office determines that the subject matter of an application for a patent is not patentable, the Secretary shall, in the interest of the public, cause the application to be published in the Official Gazette of the United States Patent and Trademark Office. (j) If the Secretary of the Patent and Trademark Office determines that the subject matter of an application for a patent is patentable, the Secretary shall, in the interest of the public, cause the application to be published in the Official Gazette of the United States Patent and Trademark Office. (k) If the Secretary of the Patent and Trademark Office determines that the subject matter of an application for a patent is not patentable, the Secretary shall, in the interest of the public, cause the application to be published in the Official Gazette of the United States Patent and Trademark Office. (l) If the Secretary of the Patent and Trademark Office determines that the subject matter of an application for a patent is patentable, the Secretary shall, in the interest of the public, cause the application to be published in the Official Gazette of the United States Patent and Trademark Office. (m) If the Secretary of the Patent and Trademark Office determines that the subject matter of an application for a patent is not patentable, the Secretary shall, in the interest of the public, cause the application to be published in the Official Gazette of the United States Patent and Trademark Office. (n) If the Secretary of the Patent and Trademark Office determines that the subject matter of an application for a patent is patentable, the Secretary shall, in the interest of the public, cause the application to be published in the Official Gazette of the United States Patent and Trademark Office. (o) If the Secretary of the Patent and Trademark Office determines that the subject matter of an application for a patent is not patentable, the Secretary shall, in the interest of the public, cause the application to be published in the Official Gazette of the United States Patent and Trademark Office. (p) If the Secretary of the Patent and Trademark Office determines that the subject matter of an application for a patent is patentable, the Secretary shall, in the interest of the public, cause the application to be published in the Official Gazette of the United States Patent and Trademark Office. (q) If the Secretary of the Patent and Trademark Office determines that the subject matter of an application for a patent is not patentable, the Secretary shall, in the interest of the public, cause the application to be published in the Official Gazette of the United States Patent and Trademark Office. (r) If the Secretary of the Patent and Trademark Office determines that the subject matter of an application for a patent is patentable, the Secretary shall, in the interest of the public, cause the application to be published in the Official Gazette of the United States Patent and Trademark Office. (s) If the Secretary of the Patent and Trademark Office determines that the subject matter of an application for a patent is not patentable, the Secretary shall, in the interest of the public, cause the application to be published in the Official Gazette of the United States Patent and Trademark Office. (t) If the Secretary of the Patent and Trademark Office determines that the subject matter of an application for a patent is patentable, the Secretary shall, in the interest of the public, cause the application to be published in the Official Gazette of the United States Patent and Trademark Office. (u) If the Secretary of the Patent and Trademark Office determines that the subject matter of an application for a patent is not patentable, the Secretary shall, in the interest of the public, cause the application to be published in the Official Gazette of the United States Patent and Trademark Office. (v) If the Secretary of the Patent and Trademark Office determines that the subject matter of an application for a patent is patentable, the Secretary shall, in the interest of the public, cause the application to be published in the Official Gazette of the United States Patent and Trademark Office. (w) If the Secretary of the Patent and Trademark Office determines that the subject matter of an application for a patent is not patentable, the Secretary shall, in the interest of the public, cause the application to be published in the Official Gazette of the United States Patent and Trademark Office. (x) If the Secretary of the Patent and Trademark Office determines that the subject matter of an application for a patent is patentable, the Secretary shall, in the interest of the public, cause the application to be published in the Official Gazette of the United States Patent and Trademark Office. (y) If the Secretary of the Patent and Trademark Office determines that the subject matter of an application for a patent is not patentable, the Secretary shall, in the interest of the public, cause the application to be published in the Official Gazette of the United States Patent and Trademark Office. (z) If the Secretary of the Patent and Trademark Office determines that the subject matter of an application for a patent is patentable, the Secretary shall, in the interest of the public, cause the application to be published in the Official Gazette of the United States Patent and Trademark Office.